

CLARENCE E. HORSLEY

BRIGHAM CITY—Clarence Eugene Horsley, 61, died at a local hospital on Saturday at 7 p.m. as the result of an automobile accident which occurred at Promontory mountain on Friway evening.

Mr. Horsley was born at Perry, Utah, April 8, 1872, the son of William and Elizabeth Welsh Horsley. He moved to Brigham City with his parents when 15 years of age, where he has resided since, and where he has been a member of the William Horsley & Sons merchantile establishment. Mr. Horsley has served as treasurer of the Sunday school stake board as a counselor of the Y. M. M. I. A. stake board; as second and first counselor to Bishop N. J. Valentine and Bishop J. Carlos Sederhohn. He filled a mission to England from 1906 to 1908.

He married Sarah Harding January 18, 1905. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Le Grande and George Harding Horsley and the following brothers and sisters: William C., John H. and Ernest E. Horsley, all of Brigham City; Miss Louie Horsley and Mrs. Lily H. Peterson of Salt Lake City.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2 p.m. in the L. D. S. tabernacle, with Bishop J. Carlos Sederholm of the L. D. S. Second ward in charge.

Funeral arrangements were deferred for several days pending word from George Harding Horsley, a son, who is an L. D. S. missionary in Honolulu. A cablegram received Thursday stated the ship he was returning on was nearing San Francisco and he would arrive in Ogden Friday at 6:40 p.m.
