

PIONEER MOTHER CALLED BY DEATH

This morning at 10:35 o'clock, Elizabeth Preston Welch Horsley, widow of the late Wm. C. Horsley, died at the family home, corner First South and First East streets, of ailments incident to old age. She had been in poor health during the past fifteen or twenty years, and critically ill during the past week.

Mrs. Horsley was born March 31, 1848, at Savannah, Missouri. She has resided in Brigham City and vicinity during the past sixty years. She married Wm. C. Horsley in the Endowment House at Salt Lake City, in March, 1865 and shortly after they removed to Perry and later to this city. Mr. Horsley died November 28, 1920. Mrs. Horsley was active in church work, and especially in the Relief Society, up until the time her health began to fail. She was one of the noble mothers of the community, and loved and respected by all who knew her.

Surviving are four sons and two daughters, as follows: President Wm. C. Horsley, John H. Horsley, Clarence E. Horsley, Ernest P. Horsley, and Louise Horsley, all of this city, and Mrs. A. H. Petersen of Salt Lake city. Also a number of Grand children.

Funeral services will be held at the stake tabernacle in this city Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, under the direction of Bishop Able S. Rich of the First ward. Following the services, the remains will be interred in the family plot at the city cemetery.
