

BRIGHAM CITY NOTES.

Brigham City, Utah, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Lillie Stewart Horsley, 33 years of age, wife of Clem Horsley of this city, died last Friday morning at 3 o'clock. She had given birth to a little girl the night previous and was thought to be getting along nicely, when she suddenly passed away.

Great sympathy was shown the bereaved husband and family by relatives and friends, a number of whom came from Provo and Salt Lake City. She leaves a family of five children, the oldest a boy of 12.

Funeral services were held in the tabernacle Sunday afternoon, at which Charles Kellr and Olsen Stohl of the stake presidency, John Welch and Hattie Wight were the speakers. The coffin and the entire stand seemed to be one solid mass of flowers, evidencing the love and esteem in which Mrs. Horsley was held.
