

Mother of Tremonton Woman Succumbs in BC

Mrs. Mildred Boden Lund, 81, of Brigham City, mother of Mrs. Jack Shumway of Tremonton, died Aug. 7, at the Pioneer Memorial nursing home after a long illness.

Mrs. Lund was born in Brigham City, May 8, 1887, to Heber C. and Charlotte Welch Boden.

She married Orville D. Lund June 27, 1912, in the Salt Lake City LDS Temple. He died April 21, 1937.

A lifetime resident of Brigham City, she was active in LDS Church affairs and served as Primary secretary and teacher for many years and as a block teach in the Relief Society.

Surviving are one son, O. Dee, Brigham City; four daughters, Mrs. Jack (Mildred) Shumway, Tremonton, Vera Lund, Burbank, Calif., Mrs. Ralph E. (Maureen) Unbreit, Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Dorothy Marin, Sumner, Wash.; 11 grandchildren, two great grandchildren.

Funeral services were Saturday in the Brigham City First Ward LDS chapel with Bishop William L. Packer conducting.

Burial was in the Brigham City cemetery.

1948
edit